

GREAT SMOKIES

SUN

A—Pentas Butterfly Light Lavender (U)

B—Helichrysum Licorice (T)

C—Ipomoea Ace of Spades (T)

D—Calibrachoa Cabaret™ Rose (M/T)

Plant Habits: U—Upright M—Mounding T—Trailing

Let's Build Something Together™

DIRECTIONS

- Fill container with potting mix
- Position plants on soil to determine placement
- Dig a hole, place plant and fill
(Tip: start with the center plant and work outward)
- Repeat with remaining plants
- Compact soil to remove air pockets
- Water
- Check daily for watering needs
- Fertilize regularly

SUPPLIES

16" CONTAINER (69434)
5-7 PLANTS PER 16" CONTAINER
POTTING MIX
SLOW-RELEASE FERTILIZER
HAND SHOVEL OR TROWEL
GLOVES
WATERING CAN

Straddling the border between North Carolina and Tennessee, Great Smoky Mountain National Park is world-renowned for the beauty of its ancient mountains. America's most visited national park, the Smokies also have the most biological diversity of any area in the world's temperate zone, and is especially noted for its population of bear, deer and elk.

VISIT LOWES.COM/CONTAINERGARDENING FOR MORE INFORMATION.