

Home Organization Worksheet

How organized is your home? Can you find what you need when you need it? If your closets, cupboards, and cubbies could use some help, use this worksheet to evaluate your existing storage space, room by room. Think about what you need to store, the hassles you've had in the past, and what your needs are now.

Then take your list with you to Lowe's. You're sure to find smart solutions to help you maximize space and minimize headaches.
